

School of International and Public Affairs
Economic and Political Development

A Cross-disciplinary Discussion and Debate on “Social Enterprise and the Relationship between Markets, State and Society:
Are There Limits to Market-based Approaches to Development?”

Second Panel: Thurs., March 10, 2011 | 6–8pm

Room 1512, SIPA's International Affairs Building,
420 West 118th Street at Amsterdam Avenue

Sustainable Social Enterprises & Pro-poor Growth

- * What Makes Social Entrepreneurship and Social Enterprise Sustainable in Developing Countries? *
- * Is there a trade-off between the push for scale and the need for pro-poor growth? *
- * What are the most promising SE models, financial instruments and strategic partnerships for long-term poverty reduction and social change?

FEATURED PANELISTS

Jeffrey Robinson, Professor (Rutgers Univ.), Entrepreneur, Advocate (Presenter)

Kim Alter, Managing Director, Virtue Ventures (Presenter)

Zachary Kaufman, Attorney, Professor (GWU), Social Entrepreneur (Presenter)

Akbar Noman, Professor, Visiting Fellow, Committee on Global Thought,
Columbia University (Moderator)

David Lavin, Master of International Affairs Candidate, Economic and Political Development Concentration, SIPA (Moderator)